B. ACQUISITION & USE

1. This property was acquired by purchase as a part of the North Dormitory development. Title was conveyed by warranty deed executed October 25, 1960 by Robert W. Hall, et al. (Deed book 2285, p. 395).

2. Home Economics had been using the Steeb House (H 204) for House Management, and had to vacate by the end of the quarter to clear the way for the construction of Morrison Tower (Bldg, 190). The house at 152 W. Woodruff was chosen as a replacement, and minor improvements were made to permit such use.

C. COST

Purchase price was $14,000 and improvements were to be held under $2000, according to records in the Property Management office.

D. DEMOLITION

Assignments for demolition were issued by the Office of Campus Planning on the following dates:

Garage — March 11, 1963

House — May 24, 1965
